

South Asia PhoNographic Mornings #09/20

Each Morning of the World #07

Pilapitiya ~ kelaniya ~ Sri lanka

6°57'18.3"N 79°54'27.4"E

« Imbue »

Isuru Kumarasinghe

~~~~~

This is from around my home In Kelaniya, Pilapitiya land with some tress surrounded with fast growing suburb . I like to stay up till early morning and listen When the space have less things happening smaller things becomes brighter. but mostly what i felt state of my self space as the listener,not only listening space outside.

~~~~~

Isuru Kumarasinghe

~~~~~

is an experimental musician and sound artist from Sri Lanka. His interests are in the perception of listening as a practice, as well as the experience of sound and sound movements. He works within the field of electronic music improvisation, field recordings, sound installations, sound performance and collaborates with contemporary dance and theatre makers. Kumarasinghe is a co-founder of the Musicmatters collective in Colombo, which musically engages with each others collective members in various combinations and formats, organizes regular events,

~~~~~

<https://www.fishclimbstree.com/>

<https://soundcloud.com/isuru-kumarasinghe>

<https://isurukumarasinghe.bandcamp.com/releases>

~~~~~